"Inclusion in culture"

ABOUT

PERIEGESIS' is a beautiful multi-meaning Greek/Latin word almost synonym to perambulation or sightseeing.

PERIEGESIS project is aiming to promote inclusiveness of Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DHH) people in vaults of cultural treasures; mainly museums, galleries, castles, archaeological sites etc. We planning to do it by elevating the skills of hearing staff such as Docents, Public relations Officers, Museum Shop Managers, Museum Protection Staff, Tour guides etc, to be able to communicate with DHH. PERIEGESIS is also aiming to bring closer the cultural places to DHH.

OUTPUTS

- PERIEGESIS Compendium
- Museum Learning Thesaurus on Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DHH) people
- Video Learning Directory for museum staff
- Lesson plans for DHH inclusion in museums and/or galleries
- Digital Serious Game for learning main phrases of cultural places

RESULTS

- at least 50 museum employers will participate in activities, workshops and play-testing of the project
- at least 60 professional deriving mostly from the museum sector or tourism, as well as trainers, coaches, and relevant professionals will be trained on the project material.
- More than 2000 people, including trainers, and more than 50 European museums and galleries, sign language canter and other institutions that deal with accessible tourism or/and DHH individuals will get aware about the project and its results
